QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

"A Drunk Man on The Streets a Rare Sight."

Does it increase or decrease drinking?

The decrease is very marked. A drunk man on our streets is now a rare sight.

What effect does it have on the morals of the community?

Sobriety always conduces to good morals. If you can keep any community from indulgence in strong drink, the claims of morality are hereby and to this extent advanced.

State whether or not it decreases crime and cost of criminal proceedings, jail expenses, etc?

I think all will admit that liquor is the most fruitful source of crime. To the extent that you decrease the use of intoxicating liquors, in the very same proportion is crime diminished.

State whether or not it removes to any extent temptation from the young?

When open barrooms were in vogue they generally had billiard and pool rooms attached and were kept open until at least 10 o'clock at night. The dispensary is closed every evening at 6. I think these statements answer the above question.

Has it retarded the growth of your city?

The population of our city is now two and one-half times greater than it was in 1891. I do not say that this is due to the dispensary, has not operated to decrease our population.

Has business been injured by it?

Not that I can see.

How does the revenue received from it compare with that received under the saloon system?

Very favorably, under our law one-half of the net profits derived from operating the dispensary goes to the city, the other half to the county.

Has it grown in favor with the people?

Undoubtedly it has.

L. W. White.

Abbeville, S. C.

Will Be a Hummer.

"Side Tracked" with its scenic and mechanical effects, its funny tramp, German and Irish comedians, and its saucy hoyden, and charming lovers, will be the attraction at the academy of music, this city, on Friday night, Feb. 10. There is a vim and go about the play that captures the gallery as well as the elite of every audience. The special scenery is effective and several strong specialties assist materially in the action of the play. E, H. O'Connor as Charles Mercer, alias Horatio Irving Booth, is very successful in his performance of the tramp and Billy Bowers as Fritz Grabhold a section gang boss, assisted materially in the fun making by his finished German character work. Gertrude Barnes, a captivating little soubrette assumes the role of Bessie Reynolds and introduces a number of very catchy songs and dances. Cecile Loraire, Josephine Roberts and Margurite Mayfield looked pretty and appeared to advantage in their different characters. L. U. Reomans appeared as James Montague and R. Edgar Vance and Judge Hecksuiff. Others in the competent cast are John Broan, Louis Leon Hall, John T. Brophy and others.

An Eye to Business.

That sees and seizes your opportunity, will make you comfortable, and, perhaps, rich.

One great chance now awaits your good judgement at our store. Flanneletts, outings, Worsteds and heavy underwear at prices that will justify you in purchasing, and even laying away for future use. A splendid line of shoes that we must move to make room for spring goods. Any style, any size, any price. 514 South Elm street. J. E. Scott.

The Name Changed.

The name of the Peoples Five Cents Savings Bank has been changed the "five cents" being dropped out. This is done to prevent uninformed people from thinking that the amount of a deposit is limited to five cents and also to shorten the name and make it more uniform. The business principles of the bank will not be, in the least, changed.

Filipinos Killed and Wounded Number Four Thousand

ANOTHER BRUSH ON YESTERDAY

In Which The Nebraskans Lose One Man and Three Wounded—Hale's Men Capture Water Supply.

By Cable to the TELEGRAM.

Manila, Feb. 7—A sharp engagement one half mile from Singalon on Monday between the Fourth Nebraska aided by part of the Utah battery, with the Filipino forces took place, in which the Nebraskans lost one man and had three wounded. General Hale's brigade captured the waterworks at Singalon. The Filipinos fled in disorder and took along with them the valves and heads of the steam chest and cylinder of the pumping machine. Dr. Young, ex-quarter master of the Third artillery was captured, killed, and horribly mutilated. Ovenshine's brigade took Pa auque and two field guns without opposition. McArthur's division has advanced beyond Gagalonguin forcing the Filipinos to retreat upon the Calooacan. The division sustained no loss.

Aguinaldo issued two proclamations Saturday and Sunday. The first declares the Americans opened the fight and calls upon the Filipino congress to suspend the constitution. The second says: "We've fought our ancient oppressors without arms. Now trust God to defend us against foreign invaders."

The Nebraskans have recovered the lost parts of the pumps insuring a speedy resumption of the water supply for the city.

The Americans now have a steamer line to Malabon. Six hundred marines and four maxims have been landed by the fleet north of the city. Among the important points captured is the strong embrasured earthworks within sight of Colooacan. There was considerable firing from the upper windows in the natives quarters of the city last night but no casualties.

The signal corps was compelled to run lines along the firing lines during the fighting, consequently there were frequent interruptions in communication owing to the cutting of wires. The signal men were ordered to kill without hesitancy any one attempting to interfere with the lines.

IN COMPLETE CONTROLL.

Manila, Feb. 7. 3:43, p. m.—The Americans are now in complete control of the situation within a radius of nine miles about Manila, their lines extending to Malabon on the north, Parauaqua on the south and fully twenty-five miles long. While a few detached bodies still offer desultory opposition the main body is in full retreat and utterly routed. Of the hordes of rebel troops originally in battle array fully one-third is incapacitated and the others are scattered in every direction.

AN OFFICIAL REPORT.

By Wire to the Telegram.

Washington, Feb. 7—General Otis cables from Manila today: "The insurgent army concentrated around Manila from the Luzon provinces, numbering over twenty thousand, with several quick firing and Krupp field guns. A good portion arrived later with Mausers. Two Krupp and a great many rifles were captured. The insurgents used great quantities of ammunition. Quite a number of Spaniards served in the insurgent artillery.

"The insurgents constructed strong entrenchments near our lines mostly of bamboo thickets. Our men charged these, killing and capturing many of the enemy. Our casualties aggregate two hundred and fifty while the insurgent casualties were very heavy They have buried some five hundred of their dead. We hold five hundred prisoners. Their killed and wounded probably aggregates four thousand. We took the water works and pumping station yesterday, six miles out after considerable skirmishing, but the enemy made no stand. The pumps are damaged but will be working in a week. A number of condensers have been set up in the city and supply good water. The troops are in good spirits and quiet prevails."

POINT LOST SIGHT OF.

Washington, Feb. 7—The authorities of the state and war departments were in consultation today as to the legal status and the view of General Otis of the protocol which besides the American forces to maintain status quo in the Philippines till after the ratification. The fact that the treaty must be ratified by both Spain and the United States was momentarily lost sight of during yesterday's excitement over the ratification by the senate. It was thought that Otis was entitled to handle the insurgents as rioters in American territory but this will not become so until Spain ratifies the treaty. This will not prevent General Otis from maintaining order but he will be compelled to do so under the terms of the protocol.

COMPELLED TO CLOSE.

A Crowd of Drunken Negroes Become Dangerous.

Seventy-five or a hundred filthy negroes gathered in McCauley's bar yesterday afternoon and became so beastly drunk and reckless that the bar-tenders were compelled to put them out and close the doors to prevent them from demolishing the fixtures. Excluded from the saloon the negroes gathered on the street crossing and for more than an hour raised such a disgraceful disturbance that sober people could not feel safe in passing among them, and consequently that side of the street remained blocked until the crowd sobered up and dispersed. We hope we may never again see such a motley, disgraceful gathering on the streets of Greensboro and the police should see that there never is.

Mr. John W. Stewart Dead

We failed to mention yesterday, the death of Mr. John W. Stewart, one of the county's best citizens, who passed away Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Mr. Stewart lived about 12 miles from town, and was in his 63rd year. He was a man of good qualities—loved and respected by his neighbors. He was the the father of our popular townsmen, Messrs. M. C. and John Stewart.

The funeral was conducted at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon at Alamance church, by Rev. Laquex, and the remains laid to rest in Alamance cemetery. The Telegram extends condolence to the bereaved relatives.

THE SCRAP HAD ITS EFFECT

And Caused The Immediate Ratification of The Treaty.

LESS CAUSE FOR EXTRA SESSION

Appropriation Bills Will Now Claim Attention—Col. Turk Working For The Fast Mail Item.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Feb. 7—The largest crowd of the session visited the senate wing of the capital yesterday. Although the voting on the ratification of the peace treaty was in executive session, the greatest interest in the result was felt by the general public, who began to arrive at the capitol as early as ten o'clock. On the floor of the senate there was a full attendance, the number of senators present being greater than at any previous time during the session. Out of the total membersip there were only seven absentees.

As was stated last night the votes of both the North Carolina senators was recorded for the ratification of the treaty. Both of the senators have all along been in favor of the ratification of the treaty, though Senator Butler is opposed to the policy of expansion. There has never been a doubt in their minds, however, as to the course which they should follow. The Virginia senators on the other hand have been opposed to the treaty, and so voted yesterday. Senator Martin, of Virginia, early in the day yesterday was reported to have made the statement that the news of the battle of Manila would not have the effect of changing the vote of a single senator who stood opposed to the treaty, but in this the Virginia senator was in error, for it is known that at least three senators, among them being Senator Harris of Kansas, voted for the treaty, while up to Sunday afternoon they were opposed to ratification. Among senators who have been opposed to ratification, it is said that a canvass of the senate Sunday morning showed conclusively that the treaty would be defeated. The Manila engagement, however, left the situation in chaos, and evidently had the effect of changing the votes of enough of the wavering senators to give the friends of the treaty three votes more than required.

One result of the ratification of the treaty will be to render an extra session of the congress improbable. Had the treaty been rejected, there is no doubt but the president would have called an extra session of Congress to assemble on the 5th of March.

From this time until the adjournment of congress, it is expected that the appropriation bills will occupy the greater portion of the time of the senate. Among the measures pending in which much interest is felt is the army reorganization bill, but it is not believed that it will pass the senate at this session, unless radically amended, as the opposition is so great and the time too limited for the protracted discussion that is sure to follow when the bill is taken up.

Much interest is felt among southern senators, particularly in the river and harbor appropriation bill. When the senate takes up this measure, it is expected that several items of interest to North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia and other southern states will be considered, and it is hoped, incorporated in the bill.

Earnest efforts are being made to get the senate to restore the item in the postoffice appropriation bill for the fast southern mail. Col. Turk, of the Southern Railway, is using his influence, and is backed by the members of the various southern delegations in congress. If the senate put the item back in the bill, it is the general opinion that the house of representatives will agree to it.

Much interest is felt in the resolution offered in the house Saturday by Representative Crumpacker, of the house committee on elections, No. 3, which is supposed to be aimed at the democratic contestees from North and South Carolina in the next congress.

It is announced at the war department that private William F. Wheeler, of Company F. Second South Carolina regiment, has been discharged from the service. Wheeler is from Lenoir, North Carolina.

Senator Pritchard has submitted an amendment to the river and harbor bill, appropriating $7,500 for continueing improvement of Fishing Creek, North Carolina. The amendment has been referred to the committee on commerce.

A patent for aparatus for making warp and other yarns, has been granted to Simeon A. Fowler, of Burlington, North Carolina.

Composed of Artists.

Belton, Texas, Dec. 3Ist 1898.

It affords me great pleasure to say to any not acquainted with Miss Louise Brehany, that in her voice is found an artists desire—sympathetic tones possessing unlimited flexibility; a resonance abounding in sweetness, intensity, purity of intonation always; a complete mastery of all technical difficulties, and a charming demeanor in her stage presence. As a lady she is beautiful in face—good to look upon—beautiful in figure, that always possesses a distinguished appearance, yet a gentle bearing that attracts all who come in her presence. The entire company is composed of artists, and will not only please all who hear them but cause all who do not to regret having lost the opportunity. My opinion that I have give is that based upon three years association with the world famous Patti, to say nothing of numerous concert companies of which I have formed a part, and my graduation from the Imperial Conservatory of Vienna, Austria.

Respectfully,
Eugene E. Davis,
Musical Director Baylor College.

TUESDAY, FEB. 7, 1899.

It now looks like Charlotte has agitated the dispensary movement in spite of confident predictions that she would not do so.

Our sprightly neighbor, the High Point Daily Citizen, has enlarged from a four to a five column folio We wish for it continued growth and abundant prosperity.

Sunday's scrap, it seems, woke up at least three of the snoozing senators in Washington, McEnery, McLaurin and Jones. They quickly faced about and voted to ratify the peace treaty.

Like the man who met the bear in the woods, we say to our "straight prohibition" friends, if you won't help us don't help the whiskey men, but stand back and "you'll see the prettiest b'ar fight you ever saw."

Again, we ask the "moral man" what is the difference in taking part of the profits of the liquor business and in taking all of it? There is no moral difference and if the dispensary only serves to curtail the output of the drunkard manufactory, isn't the dispensary a good thing?

There will be no war in the Philippines. Sunday's brush over there amounts, according to the press despatches, to a massacre. The gay Aggy has been taught a lesson which he has been needing very badly of late. If he has only half enough sense to govern himself he will now ring off and be good.

Nearly all communities have a few individuals who are making some money in a small way who try to keep the business down where they can handle it It's a sort of dog-in the-manger policy. Let everything be run on broad-guage principles. If you have a good thing and can't develop it, get help. It will not only help you but help the city.

The Telegram has repeatedly spoken of the injustice imposed upon merchants by the purchase tax. It amounts virtually to a double tax. It is discrimination, pure and simple. Today is the day, we believe, that the legislature has agreed to hear the merchants in regard to this matter and representative men from all over the state are in Raleigh for that purpose. We hope the legislature will right the wrong imposed by putting the tax back (at least) where it formerly was under democratic rule.

The present city administration is likely to hear a royal kick from the citizens of South Greensboro when election time comes again. Street work in that part of the city has been sadly neglected and promises have been repeatedly broken. If we are not greatly mistaken that hill on South Elm was to have come down over a year ago. It was to be the first work after Spring street was graded. Then it was certainly coming after the work on Davie was completed. Then after East Market. And it has not come yet.

It is winter now and the necessity for sewerage all over Greensboro is not so apparent as it will be when warm weather comes. There are more people in Greensboro than ever before. New houses are going up all the time The prospect is that 1899 will be the best year of growth in the history of the city. But with all this, its growth is greatly hindered by a lack of sewerage, good streets and sidewalks. It is time to begin to talk in earnest about the proposed bond issue for city improvements. If you have any objection now is the time to raise it.

Parties who have hauling to do on Lewis street and Walker avenue would like to have the board of aldermen visit those places in a body, including the mayor. If they do so we would suggest, however, that they stay close to the buildings and fences unless they are good swimmers. Seriously, those streets are in a deplorable condition. And the mud through which the Normal College students have to pull, should make those in authority and who have the power to remedy it, ashamed of themselves. We hear many complaints and are frequently asked to "get after" the authorities. We are perfectly willing to do anything we can to secure better walks and streets, and if the Telegram had the power it would not only remedy the miserable condition of the two streets mentioned, but would have first-class walks and streets all over town. It is said the city authorities are not to blame because they have no means to remedy the evil complained of; but they can manifest a disposition to do by advocating a bond issue sufficient to do the work. Let us have better streets.

Gun Cotton.

We had come into the storeroom for torpedoes at the Brooklyn navy yard and the talk turned to high explosives.

"We have to keep a sharp watch on the gun cotton," said one of the gunners who were with me, "to see that it does not get dry and does not get too acid. There is never a day goes by on a battleship but careful inspection is made of the stores of gun cotton. Dip in a piece of litmus paper and see if it comes out blue. If it does, all is well, but beware if it comes out red. That means acid, and acid means danger."

"What do you do when it comes out red?" I asked.

"Neutralize the acid. You see, gun cotton deteriorates a lot in an acid solution."

"Do you always keep the gun cotton wet?"

"Always. That's one of the first principles. When it's wet, it's safe; when it's dry, it isn't. Let it have all the water it will soak up, which is about 30 per cent."

"Suppose you were to touch off some gun cotton here on the ground, what would happen?"

"Nothing at all if it wasn't confined. You might burn a ton of it like cordwood in a bonfire. But pack it in a tin box, even a flimsy one, and you'll have fun. And, of course, the stronger the box the more fun you'll have."—Boston Globe.

Underground Paris.

The Paris of the pavement, gay, bright and exhilarating, is fairly familiar to us all, but underground Paris, dark, solitary and damp, extending for miles, is comparatively unknown. A part of this area is devoted to the catacombs—a valley of dry bones, a garden of the dead; the rest a garden still more vast, provides for the wants, or rather the luxuries, of the living—it is devoted to mushroom culture. These subterranean gardens extend for some 20 miles under the gay capital and are from 20 feet to 160 feet beneath the surface.

It is very difficult to obtain permission to visit them, and even when permission is obtained it requires some courage to avail oneself of it, for the only entrance is a circular opening like the mouth of a well, out of which a long pole stands. Through this pole, fastened at the top only, at fairly long intervals, sticks are thrust. This primitive ladder, the base of which swings like a pendulum in the impenetrable darkness below, is the only means of reaching the caves. "Here," again cried our guide, with a burst of cheerfulness, "see this door! On the other side are the catacombs—as full of bones as this place is of mushrooms." We smiled. We were not afraid of bones with an iron door between them and us.—Strand Magazine.

When Rosette Died.

Horace Walpole is a great lover of dogs too. Patapan, Tonton and Rosette (the last the legacy of Mme. du Deffand) are certainly the most spoiled of the species, and run all over Strawberry after their master, to the detriment, one would have thought, of the prim gardens and the vertu.

When Rosette dies presently, Horace sends the most touching epitaph on a dog ever written, perhaps, to my Lord Nuneham. "It has no merit," he says, "for it is an imitation, but it comes from the heart if ever epitaph did, and therefore your dogmanity will not dislike it."

Sweetest roses of the year
Strew around my Rose's bier.
Calmly may the dust repose
Of my faithful, pretty Rose.

The opening lines at least have the oddest unlikeness to the popular conception of Horace Walpole, if they have some affinity with the man who is the friend and playfellow of little children and can't find it in his heart to turn off an old servant or to give up an old ally.—Longman's Magazine.

How to Dissect a Mosquito.

A needle held in the left hand is passed through the thorax, the legs and wings are pulled off, and, if necessary, the scales of the body brushed off with a camel's hair brush. The tail is then lowered into a drop of water, salt solution or weak formalin placed on a glass slide, and with another needle held in the right hand the last two segments of the tail are partially separated and held down upon the slide. The left hand is then moved in such a manner as to draw away the insect.—Major Ross, I. M. S., in Indian Medical Gazette.

Horrible agony is caused by Piles, Burns and Skin Diseases. These are immediately relieved and quickly cured by De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. Beware of worthless imitations. Howard Gardner.

Revision of Petitions.

Last week it was claimed that those who had signed the dispensary petitions at High Point regretted it and that the signers would almost unanimously withdraw their names if they had the opportunity. The petitions were returned to High Point and notice given in the newspapers that all who wished were privileged to withdraw their names. The petitions remained in High Point several days and have been returned with only twelve names erased.

It has been urged by the opposition of the dispensary in Greensboro that a great many had signed the petitions under misapprehension and wanted to withdraw their names. It has been decided, therefore, that on Tuesday night at the mass meeting of citizens in the court house the dispensary petitions will be revised and that all who wish to withdraw their names will be given an opportunity to do so.

The Streets of New York.

It was lunchtime and the "frankfurter and roll" men of Frankfort street were doing their best to appease the appetites of the 200 or 800 newsboys who throng Park row. One of the dealers in giving change to a buyer accidentally dropped a dime, and before he had time to pick it up his brother dealer quickly stooped down and grabbed it. Then ensued an argument in a way which only "frankfurter men" can argue, each claiming that he had dropped the dime. It is very likely they would be arguing yet had not a young fellow of the Bowery type who had chanced to witness the trouble interfered. Walking up to the one who had really dropped the money he said:

"Dat's yer dime dat bloke has, ain't it?"

"Yes."

"Well, say, how much will yer gim me if I gets it back fer yer?"

"A nickel," was the answer.

Then, addressing the other contestant, the Bowery boy said:

"Say, yer got dat feller's dime, 'cause I saw yer take it. But, say, if I don't take it away from yer how much will yer gimme?"

"Six cents," was the quick reply.

"All right; hand over." The bargain was concluded just as a policeman came rushing up and grabbed the one who had dropped the dime and took him to the station house for disorderly conduct. —New York Commercial Advertiser.

A Punctual Man.

A certain Mr. Scott of Exeter whose business required him to travel constantly was one of the most famous characters for punctuality in the kingdom. By his methodical habits, combined with unwearied industry, he accumulated a large fortune. For a great many years the landlord of every inn in Cornwall or Devon that he visited knew the exact day and hour he would arrive. A short time before he died, at the advanced age of 80, a gentleman who was making a journey through Cornwall put up at a small inn at Port Isaac for his dinner. He looked over the bill of fare and found nothing to his liking. He had, however, seen a fine duck roasting on the fire. "I'll have that," said he.

"You cannot, sir," replied the landlord. "It is for Mr. Scott of Exeter."

"I know Mr. Scott very well," replied the traveler. "He is not in your house."

"Very sorry," said the landlord, "but six months ago, when he was last here, he ordered the duck to be ready for him this day exactly at 2 o'clock."

And to the amazement of the traveler, who chanced to look from the window, the old gentleman was at that moment entering the inn yard about five minutes before the appointed time. —Harper's Round Table.

An Acceptable Clock.

A well known professor sometimes became so much interested in his lecture that when the noon bell rang he kept the class five or ten minutes over the hour. Certain restless spirits among the students thought they would give him a gentle hint, so they bought an alarm clock, set it to go off precisely at noon and placed it on the professor's desk when they came in to the next lecture. They knew that he was a little absentminded and expected that he would not notice it.

As the noon hour struck the alarm went off with a crash, and those of the class not in the secret started and took in the joke at once. There was a round of applause. The professor waited until the alarm and the applause were over and then said: "Young gentlemen, I thank you for this little gift. I had forgotten it was my birthday. An alarm clock is something my wife has needed for our servant for some time. It is a very kind remembrance on your part." The professor then went on to finish a demonstration interrupted by the alarm.—London Tit-Bits.

A Bad Dream.

It is not likely that any English speaking people understand so keen and punctilious a devotion to the niceties of language as that which characterizes the French grammarians. We may help ourselves to understand it perhaps by reading a story told of M. Lamany.

One night lately he awoke and sprang out of bed with a wild cry. His wife came running. He was in alarm and despair.

"Why, what is the matter?" she gasped.

"I dreamed," said the professor. "Oh, I had a horrible, a heartrending dream."

"What was it?"

"I dreamed I was talking, and I distinctly heard myself utter a sentence which had a grammatical error in it." —Youth's Companion.

Two Lockouts.

Editor's Wife (from second story window)—You don't get in this house at any such hour of the morning as this.

Editor (appealingly)—But, my dear, I was unavoidably detained at the office. You see, we had late news of a tremendous big lockout, and—

Wife—All right; you've got news of another now (slamming down the window).—London Answers.

Flags That No Longer Wave.

Of 35 flags shown in a "flags of all nations" supplement to a London weekly in 1858 11 have disappeared, among them those of the East India company, of the Ionian islands, of Tuscany, Naples, the States of the Church, of the Russian-American company and of Sardinia.

Sickly Creatures.

Jennie—Herbie, it says here another octogenarian's dead. What's an octogenarian?

Herbie—Well, I don't just know what they are, but they must be awfully sickly creatures. You never hear of 'em but they're dying.—Brooklyn Life.

Opening of the Social Season and Inauguration of the Magnificent

New York & Florida Limited Service

JANUARY 16, 1899.

The opening of the Florida season will be signalized this year as usual by the placing in service of the "New York and Florida Limited" between New York and St. Augustine, Fla. This is acknowledged to be the finest train in the world, in its appointments, luxury and detail of finish, and the first of these trains was constructed by the Pullman company for the use of the President of the United States on official tours.

"The New York and Florida Limited" leaves New York daily except Sunday at 11:50 a. m., via the pennsylvania Railroad, the Southern Railway, Florida Central & Peninsular R. R. and the Florida East Coast Railway, and reaches St. Augustine at 2.20 p. m. the following day, making the run, which exceeds 1,000 miles, in little more than twenty-four hours. No train has attracted so much attention, and its fame has been heralded wherever railroading is known. It is composed of Pullman compartment cars, each room being finished in different woods and supplied with private lavatory and toilet; Pullman drawing-room sleeping cars of the latest pattern and finish; a royal club car for the gentlemen; an observation car with a handsome drawing room at its rear opening on to a wide platform; a library car, and dining car, in which the service and the cuisine rank with the finest New York hotels. This "New York and Florida Limited" runs through solid to St. Augustine with the exception of one car which is detached at Columbia, S. C., and goes through to Aiken, which it reaches at 9:35 the next morning after leaving New York, and Augusta at 9:50. Brunswick and Jeckyl Island are conveniently reached by this train at 12 o'clock noon through the perfect connections afforded at Everett, Ga.

There are two other fine trains between New York ond Florida via "The Florida Short Line," one the "Washington and Southwestern Vestibule Limited," leaving New York at 4:20 p. m. daily, and the "United States Fast Mail," leaving New York at 12:05 midnight. The former train carries through Pullman drawing room sleeping cars between New York, Jacksonville and Tampa, and also offers Pullman sleeping car service between New York and Augusta, Ga., with connections for Aiken, Brunswick and Jekyl Island. The latter carries through drawing room sleeping cars between New York and Jacksonville, connecting with parlor car service to points on F. C. & P. R. R. and F. E. C. Ry. Dining cars are operated on all trains of the Southern Ry. "The Florida Short Line" in connection with the Florida East Coast Railway to Miami offers the most direct, quickest and delightful service to Nassau, Havana and Key West. For full information, reservations, etc., apply to J. L. Adams, G. E. A., F. C. & P. R. R., 353 Broadway, New York, or to A. S. Thweatt, E. P. A., Southern Ry, 271 Broadway, New York.

An Honest Medicine for La Grippe,

George W. Waitt of South Gardiner, Mo., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vender. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one 50-cent bottle and the chills, cold and grip have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine." For sale by C. E. Holton.

At Bedford City, Va., Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. William W. Watson died within two hours of pneumonia.

For La Grippe

Thomas Whitfield & Co., 250 Wabash ave., corner Jackson st., one of Chicago's oldest and most prominent druggists, recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for la grippe, as it not only gives a prompt and complete relief, but also counteracts any tendency of la grippe to result in pneumonia. For sale by C. E. Holton.

It is rumored in Atlanta that the Kansas City, Fort Scott and Memphis R. R., has purchased the Seaboard Air Line.

Dangers of the Grip.

The greatest danger from La Grippe is of its resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for la grippe we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure la grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by C. E. Holton.

They are all nice fellows and say they do not die to please the people, but dye to save your clothes. Read the new ad of Greensboro Pressing club.

We feel that it is only necessary to tell you that Rankin, Chisholm, Stroud & Rees have a new ad today. If you ever read advertisements their's is always interesting.

Quite a delegation of young ladies from Greensboro Female College have secured seats, to attend the performance by the Brehany Concert company at the academy tomorrow night.

These students are all accommodated in six large boarding halls on the school grounds that have been built within the last three or four years to meet the growing patronage.
